PARTNER

Tim Rothberg is a partner in Peckar & Abramson's Houston office and chair of the Power & Industrial Facilities/EPC Practice. He concentrates his practice on construction, oil and gas, and complex commercial litigation matters and provides his clients both courtroom and business solutions.

Drawing upon significant trial experience and 12+ years of providing general business counsel to companies of all sizes, Tim effectively and efficiently handles the legal and business needs of his clients. He has extensive experience in construction, complex commercial, intellectual property and energy-related litigation and relies upon this experience in strategically advising clients in connection with litigation ranging from routine matters through bet-the-company disputes.

Tim is board certified in Civil Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He has been recognized by Texas Super Lawyers as one of the top "Up-and-Coming 100" lawyers in Texas, was listed as a "Rising Star" by that publication from 2013-2020, and in 2021 and 2022 was recognized as a Super Lawyer. H-Texas Magazine named Tim one of Houston's Top Lawyers and Texas Lawyer has honored him as a Top Litigator. Among other cases, Tim was named in this category following a jury verdict he obtained in a deceptive trade practices and fraud matter. In addition, Tim has been named Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation (2013).

In October 2019, Tim was inducted into the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), a national, invitation-only, association of experienced trial lawyers and judges who have tried a significant number of jury trials to conclusion as the lead trial lawyer.

Tim serves as a Member of the Board of Directors with Innovative Humanitarian Solutions and previously served as Chair of the Houston Baptist University's Alumni Association.

Tim is licensed in Texas and Louisiana state and federal courts. He earned his J.D. from Emory University School of Law and his undergraduate degree in Political Science and Communications from Houston Baptist University.
