ASSOCIATE

Cameron T. Lukas is an associate in Peckar & Abramson's New Jersey office where he concentrates his practice on construction related issues including contracts and litigation.

Cameron has significant experience in multiple aspects of litigation including client intake, electronic discovery, legal research and writing, involving both motions and briefs, and trial preparation. He has worked on legal issues involving construction contracts and commercial matters, trusts and estates, and property law, both in an individual capacity and as part of a team.

Cameron also has hands-on experience in the construction industry, having worked as an Assistant Project Supervisor and laborer on New York City construction projects. He was commissioned into the US Army in 2016 and since then, has served as a Chemical Officer in the Army National Guard, achieving the rank of First Lieutenant. Cameron received his J.D. from Rutgers Law School and his B.A. from Gordon College.
