P&A, which maintains its position as the “go to” law firm for many of the construction industry’s most successful contractors, builders and associations, is widely recognized for its leadership and innovation in construction law and litigation.

The number of P&A attorneys selected for this honor reflects the firm’s extraordinary talent and depth of experience in handling the most challenging disputes and transactions, as well as the unique ability to provide a full range of legal services that earn high praise across the United States and internationally.

In response to this outstanding recognition, P&A Chairman, Steve Charney, noted, “The fact that Best Lawyers[®] chose to award recognition to more construction litigators and lawyers at P&A than any other law firm in the country, demonstrates our firm’s preeminence in serving this industry. This distinction further punctuates P&A’s standing as the nation’s foremost construction practice.”
