Peckar & Abramson, P.C. Grows National Construction Practice with Opening of Boston office and Addition of Top Litigation Team

BOSTON, MA – September 13, 2021 – Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce the opening of its newest location in Boston, Massachusetts, and the arrival of accomplished construction and commercial litigation partners, Richard E. Briansky and Amy B. Hackett, to the firm.

“For nearly 44 years, P&A has provided industry leading legal services to construction clients across the United States and around the world. With the addition of our eleventh U.S. location, we broaden our geographic reach even further, while expanding our ability to serve clients locally and wherever their projects may take them,” said P&A Chairman, Steven M. Charney. He added, “Along with their colleagues across the firm, we will look to Richard and Amy for their leadership and collaboration as we continue to help clients meet challenges, particularly as the construction industry increases in complexity.”

New York Co-Managing Partner, Paul Monte, added, “We are very proud to welcome Richard and Amy, both well known for their solid litigation skills and commitment to client service, to P&A. Their arrival, and the opening of our Boston location, further enables us to provide a suite of fully integrated services to clients from Maine to Florida on the East Coast.”

“P&A’s reputation around the country—including in Boston—is exceptional, both in terms of legal acumen and culture,” said Briansky “The firm’s reputation preceded our arrival, and we look forward to continuing that tradition in the Northeast.”

Hackett commented, “By joining P&A, Rich and I were confident we would have the platform, bench strength, and resources that clients deserve and should expect from their lawyers and law firm. We are excited to join forces with this talented group of practitioners, and will work together to deliver on P&A’s ResultsFirst<sup>SM</sup> commitment to top-tier client service, value, and delivery of exceptional legal services.”
