Attorney Tracey L. Williams Receives Diversity Scholarship for ABA Forum on Construction Law's 2018 Annual Meeting

DALLAS, TX- March 5, 2018 – Construction and commercial litigation attorney Tracey L. Williams, an associate with national construction law firm Peckar & Abramson, P.C., has received a Diversity Scholarship for the ABA Forum on Construction Law's 2018 Annual Meeting entitled "Taking Care of Business: A Mini-MBA Program for the Construction Lawyer." The Annual Meeting will take place at the Roosevelt New Orleans in New Orleans, Louisiana on April 11 – 13, 2018. Williams is one of six Diversity Scholarship recipients. Women and minority construction lawyers as well as construction lawyers with disabilities are eligible for the Scholarship.

Williams has more than 10 years of litigation experience and represents clients in construction matters involving contract disputes, mechanics and materialman's lien foreclosures, bond claims, and other construction-related claims, as well as general commercial matters.

She is admitted to practice law in all Texas and Oklahoma state courts as well as the United States District Court for the Northern, Eastern, Western and Southern Districts of Texas. Williams earned her law degree from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law, now known as the Texas A&M University School of Law. She received her Bachelor of Business Administration cum laude from the University of Texas at Arlington.

About the ABA Forum on Construction Law: Diversity Committee

Promoting diversity in the profession shall be a priority of the Forum. The mission of the ABA Forum's Diversity Committee is to raise awareness and understanding among our members and others of the vital role diversity plays in the construction industry, both nationally and globally. The Diversity Committee's mission includes enhancing participation, inclusion and leadership opportunities for attorneys of diverse backgrounds in Forum programs, publications and other initiatives. The Committee will also educate our membership on how diversity impacts the practice of construction law. For more information, visit <http://apps.americanbar.org/dch/committee.cfm?com=ci867671>.
