

Peckar & Abramson Adds Seven Attorneys in First Quarter of 2022

NEW YORK, NY – May 4, 2022 – National construction law firm Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that seven attorneys joined the firm in the first quarter of 2022 in four of the firm’s 11 offices. Now among the firm’s partners, senior counsel, and associates, these attorneys have strengthened the ranks of P&A’s Boston, Los Angeles, River Edge, and Washington, DC offices.

Partner

Steven Weber (Washington, DC)

Senior Counsel

Eric Penley (Boston)

Simran Tiwana (Los Angeles)

Senior Associate

Benjamin J. Hochberg (River Edge)

Associates

Lucas T. Daniels (Washington, DC)

Kevin M. Foltmer (River Edge)

J. Logan Rigsbee (Washington, DC)

“We are thrilled to welcome these new attorneys as they share P&A’s passion for delivering unsurpassed legal and client service. The variety and depth of experience they possess complements our capabilities and brings significant value to our clients across the United States,” said Steven M. Charney, chair of P&A.

Mike Branca, co-managing partner of P&A’s Washington, DC office, said “Steve Weber is a ‘litigator’s litigator’ and a top-flight government contracts lawyer with a great reputation—able to understand issues from the clients’ perspective and facilitate the best possible business solution.” He continued, “We’re excited to also add Logan and Lucas to our office, increasing the support and value we provide to our clients.”

Regarding Simran Tiwana, Nate Cohen, partner in the firm’s Los Angeles office, said, “Having had a decade long career as a licensed professional engineer, Simran brings a unique and valuable perspective to P&A from his combined legal and engineering background. We’re thrilled to add Simran to our office as a vital part of our team.”

Amy Hackett, acting managing partner of the firm’s Boston office, commented on the addition of Eric Penley. “His strong background in construction and complex business litigation enhances our bench here in Boston.”

“Ben and Kevin bring excellent skills and value to the firm, and we are thrilled that they are part of the future generation of P&A attorneys,” added Levi Barrett, co-managing partner of the firm’s New Jersey office.
