

Peckar & Abramson Has the Largest Total Number of US Attorneys Ranked by Who's Who Legal: Construction and is the Only US Firm in the Top 5; Denis Serkin One of Only Four US Attorneys Recognized as a Future Leader

NEW YORK, NY. – May 31, 2022 – Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that 17 attorneys have been recognized by Who's Who Legal (WWL) and are included in the 2022 edition of Who's Who Legal: Construction. P&A is the only US firm among a top five list of international construction firms, based on the total number of recognized attorneys per firm. P&A also has the largest total number of US construction attorneys recognized overall and eight times the number of recognized construction attorneys in North America than any other firm in the publication's top ten list. Among the list is Denis Serkin, partner and chair of P&A's International practice, who is one of only four US attorneys recognized in the "Future Leaders" category.

WWL reports that the publication, a global directory, "provides in-depth analysis to the world's elite construction lawyers." According to WWL, attorneys are selected "for their outstanding experience and expertise" and are chosen based on "interviews with leading members of the legal community around the world, including private practice and in-house lawyers, arbitrators, judges, consulting experts and academics" as well as peer review and feedback.

Firm Chair, Steven M. Charney, commented, "This recognition by Who's Who Legal reflects the commitment our attorneys have to understanding our client's goals and responding to national and international challenges with exceptional solutions." Steve went on to state, "We are honored to have the largest number of US attorneys recognized by WWL and to be among a top list of such well-respected international firms. We are also particularly delighted that Denis Serkin was named as a Future Leader, sharing this honor with only three other attorneys across the entire US."

The following attorneys were recognized by WWL:
