ASSOCIATE

Jacob is an associate in Peckar & Abramson's Dallas, Texas office, where he concentrates his practice on construction-related issues, including contracts and litigation.

Jacob received his B.A. in Political Science at The University of Texas at Dallas; and his J.D. at Baylor University School of Law, where he served as a member of the Baylor Public Interest Legal Society and Hispanic American Law Student Association.

During law school, Jacob served as a judicial intern for the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, Waco Division, engaging in legal research for proper legal conclusions, reviewing motions, and collaborating with other interns to produce sound orders. He then served as a judicial intern for the 68th Civil District Court of Dallas County, attending and facilitating several civil jury trials and drafting memoranda on motions for summary judgment.
