Seasoned Attorney Tiffany Harrod Joins Peckar & Abramson Bolstering the Firm's Bench in Austin and Houston, Texas

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that attorney Tiffany A. Harrod has joined the firm's Austin and Houston offices as a partner. Tiffany brings significant experience to the firm with more than fourteen years of experience in construction and commercial litigation.

Matt Moore, managing partner of P&A's Texas offices commented "We're excited to have Tiffany on board as an amplifying addition to the evolution of P&A's presence in Texas." He continued, "Her extensive experience in construction litigation will further enhance our firm's capabilities to meet the needs of our clients in Texas's expanding market."

Managing partner of the firm's Austin office, George Baldwin, added, "Tiffany values her client relationships and endeavors to provide the best client service possible, a principle that deeply aligns with P&A's core values."

"I was drawn to P&A because of its long-standing commitment to the construction industry and collaborative work environment across the US. P&A lawyers are uniquely equipped to advise clients on construction matters and disputes in the US and abroad," said Tiffany Harrod. She added, "P&A's commitment to developing young talent, including women and diverse lawyers, is an important part of the firm's future."
