

Peckar & Abramson's Robert Peckar and Steven Charney Named to Business Today's Top Influential Construction Lawyers List

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that Robert S. Peckar, a founding partner of P&A, and Steven M. Charney, Chair of the firm, have been recognized in Business Today's Top Influential Construction Lawyers list. This list highlights the top ten legal professionals who, according to Business Today, "are making significant contributions in the realm of construction law in the United States."

Business Today states that the honorees "bring to the table not just their expertise in the legal aspects of construction, but have also demonstrated keen insights into the business, economic, and technical aspects as well." The complete list can be viewed here.

Steve Charney commented, "It is a privilege to be recognized among such an esteemed group of construction lawyers, including my partner Bob who is truly an industry pioneer and has made remarkable contributions to advancing construction law." He continued, "This recognition is consistent with our deep commitment to the betterment of the industry and the standard of excellence that guides us at P&A."

ABOUT BUSINESS TODAY

BusinessToday.news states that it is: "an online publication committed to delivering comprehensive and insightful coverage of the latest business news, trends, and practices. With a focus on finance, technology, entrepreneurship, and other critical areas, it serves as a valuable resource for professionals seeking to stay abreast of the rapidly evolving business landscape."

ABOUT STEVEN M. CHARNEY

Steven M. Charney is Chair of Peckar & Abramson and is regarded as one of the foremost construction lawyers in the United States of America. His practice since the 1980s and that of the firm he leads includes ongoing representation of contractors that are among the top ten as reported by Engineering News Record. Steve's background couples extensive academic and hands-on experience in the construction industry with decades of experience in litigating for and providing legal counsel to contractors and developers.

In view of his accomplishments, Steve has been repeatedly recognized by Chambers USA, as a leading attorney in the field of Construction Law in New York. He has also been repeatedly named to Who's Who of International Construction Lawyers, selected for inclusion in the publication Best Lawyers, and listed in New York Magazine as a top construction attorney in the New York, New Jersey and Connecticut area. Steve is also a fellow in the American College of Construction Lawyers.

Steve is a graduate of Seton Hall University School of Law, where he attended as an evening student while working full-time in the construction industry. In 1983, he received a Master of Science degree in construction management from the School of Civil Engineering at New Jersey Institute of Technology (where he also studied as an evening student while working full-time in the construction industry). Steve also holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Syracuse University, with a concentration in construction technologies.

ABOUT ROBERT S. PECKAR

Robert S. Peckar is a founding partner of Peckar & Abramson. Bob has devoted his career to serving the construction industry and bar. For decades, he has represented contractors throughout the United States and the world, gaining a widespread reputation for his legal acumen, his energetic representation, and his creative approach to solving contractors' most challenging problems. In that regard, he was among the pioneers of creative dispute avoidance and dispute resolution techniques in the construction industry. Bob is currently continuing that service to the firm's clients, but also bringing expertise to clients around the globe in regard to corporate integrity programs and anticorruption issues (with particular emphasis on the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act).

Bob has been widely recognized as one of the leading construction lawyers for many years. For seven successive years, he was awarded the distinction as the Leading Construction Lawyer in the World by the International Who's Who of Business Lawyers. In 2021, The Legal 500: United States named Bob to the "Hall of Fame" and in 2020 he was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award by the New Jersey Law Journal.

Bob is admitted to practice in the State of New Jersey, the State of New York, the United States Supreme Court, the United States Courts of Appeals for the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Circuits, the United States Court of Federal Claims and the United States District Court for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York and the District of New Jersey. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Rutgers University and his law degree from Columbia Law School.
