BIO

Joshua M. Pruett is an associate in Peckar & Abramson's Construction & Infrastructure and Business Litigation practices. Based in the firm's Austin office, Joshua represents clients in a variety of matters within the construction industry, including construction defect cases and breach of contract disputes.

Joshua earned his B.S. in Civil and Environmental Engineering and M.S. in Civil Engineering, Geotechnical Emphasis from Brigham Young University. He worked as a geotechnical engineer in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, for 10 years, providing engineering services for a variety of public infrastructure, commercial construction, industrial facility, and pipeline projects.

Thereafter, Joshua earned his J.D. from Louisiana State University, where he also participated as a Production Editor for the Journal of Energy Law and Resources. While in law school, Joshua served as a Legal Extern for the Honorable Judge Shelly Dick in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.
