BIO

Nathalie is an associate in Peckar & Abramson's Miami office where she concentrates her practice on representing clients in construction-related litigation transactional matters and business disputes. She is equipped to serve clients in both English and Spanish.

Before joining P&A, Nathalie was an associate at a boutique law firm, where she represented financial institutions and individuals in residential, commercial, and real estate matters. She also represented commercial litigation clients, including businesses, partners, and shareholders, in litigation disputes and transactional matters. Nathalie's experience also includes drafting motions for summary judgment, settlement agreements, and discovery requests.

She earned her B.S. from the University of Florida and her J.D. from Florida International University. During law school, Nathalie served as a judicial intern in the United States Southern District of Florida and served as the Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the FIU Law World Arbitration & Mediation Review.
