

Mark A. Rosen Joins Construction Law Firm Peckar & Abramson, Further Strengthening the Firm's Practice in the Northeast

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that Mark A. Rosen has joined the firm's New Jersey and New York offices as a Senior Partner. With an exceptional reputation in the construction community and over 40 years of experience in construction law and litigation, Mark brings a wealth of experience, particularly in the heavy civil and public works sector.

Steven M. Charney, chair of P&A, commented, "We're thrilled to welcome Mark to the firm. His rich understanding of the intricacies of construction law and reputation as a leading construction attorney, enhances P&A's talented team of lawyers that serve our clients in the New York region and beyond." He continued, "With the addition of Mark, we reaffirm our commitment to unparalleled excellence and our position as the premier construction law firm in the country."

Paul Monte, Co-Managing Partner of the firm's New York office, added, "I have had the privilege of knowing Mark for many years and have witnessed firsthand his outstanding legal skills and dedication to the industry. He will undoubtedly play a pivotal role in our continued success and growth."

"I am honored to join my friends at P&A," said Mark. "The firm's preeminent reputation and extensive resources make it the ideal platform for me to continue delivering exceptional legal counsel to the construction community. I look forward to leveraging the firm's collaborative environment, providing innovative solutions, and achieving outstanding results for our clients."

ABOUT MARK ROSEN

Mark represents a wide array of clients, including both private and public owners, general contractors, subcontractors, utility and heavy highway contractors, contract and commercial sureties, general liability, property, and builders' risk underwriters facing construction disputes, and project completion issues. In addition to decades of success litigating construction disputes, Mark has extensive experience negotiating and reviewing CBAs (collective bargaining agreements) and addressing grievances in connection union labor matters throughout the NY/NJ metropolitan area. In addition, Mark advises clients in the review, negotiation and drafting of construction contracts and provides guidance and counsel in project dispute resolution and project crisis management.

Mark serves as counsel to the General Contractors Association of New York and the Wall, Ceiling, & Carpentry Association of New York, two of the most significant contractor associations in the New York Metropolitan area. Formerly, he was an adjunct professor in Construction Law at the New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Recognized by Chambers USA for construction law, Mark is considered a leader in the field. He received his Bachelor of Arts from New York University in Political Science and Government, and his Juris Doctor from the State University of New York at Buffalo.
