BIO

Victoria is an Associate in Peckar & Abramson's Dallas office, focusing her practice on construction law and litigation. Victoria represents contractors, construction managers, and other key industry stakeholders, providing strategic legal guidance to help clients navigate complex disputes and manage risk effectively. She is also involved in defending healthcare professionals against regulatory actions, including hearings before Texas professional licensing boards such as the Texas Medical Board.

Victoria holds a Juris Doctor from SMU Dedman School of Law in Dallas, where she earned a Dean's Scholarship and served as an Articles Editor for the SMU Law Review Association. She also earned dual Bachelor of Arts degrees from Vanderbilt University in Classical and Mediterranean Studies and Law, History, and Society.
