

Chambers USA Names Peckar & Abramson to Band 1 Level in Construction Law 33 P&A Lawyers Recognized as Leading Attorneys Eight Regions and Government Contracts Practice Recognized

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that Chambers USA has once again recognized the firm at the Band 1 level nationwide in Construction Law. P&A stands alone in being named a Band 1 firm in Construction Law nationally and has been named in the position every year since Chambers USA began awarding the recognition. The firm was also recognized nationally in Government Contracts: Highly Regarded.

P&A's offices in New York, New Jersey, DC, Florida, and Texas were ranked Band 1 in Construction Law, and the Firm's California, Illinois, and Massachusetts practices were also highly rated. With these state recognitions, P&A is proud to be recognized across all states where the firm operates. Additionally, 33 of P&A's construction lawyers were named leading construction lawyers in their respective jurisdictions – more than any other construction law practice in the country.

As demonstrated by its consistent Chambers USA Rankings, Peckar & Abramson has earned a national reputation for exceptional legal advocacy, representing construction industry members domestically and internationally.

A few of the client comments submitted to Chambers USA during their 2025 research cycle include:

"Their reputation for excellence sets them apart from all the rest."

"A very prominent firm with a first-class reputation."

"The team is very pragmatic and practical, results-driven and solution oriented. They look for all potential avenues for resolution."

"Peckar has a deep bench of construction talent. They have renowned national experts in every facet of construction, so no issue is too niche."

"Peckar & Abramson is the benchmark."

"Peckar & Abramson have the necessary resources to support their clients from beginning to end."

"The firm has a unique and valued combination of substantive knowledge and skills combined with conscientious, prompt responsiveness."

P&A Chair Steven M. Charney commented, "We are immensely proud to be recognized by Chambers USA, a testament to our unwavering commitment to excellence and client service. Being the only firm ranked nationally as Band 1 in construction, with the most construction attorneys recognized, reinforces our position as a leader in the industry." He added, "Our dedication to delivering top-tier legal solutions is at the heart of everything we do, and we will continue striving for the highest standards."
