

Peckar & Abramson Receives Construction Law Firm Award At Lexology Awards: North America 2025

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is proud to announce the firm has received the Construction Law Firm award at the 2025 Lexology Awards: North America. Only one firm earns this prestigious honor annually and this is the second consecutive year P&A has won the award.

According to the Lexology research team, this award recognizes the exceptional achievements of top firms in various practice areas and sectors. Companies have been honored at their global awards ceremonies for over 15 years.

With a rich history spanning over 47 years, P&A is pleased to receive this recognition that reflects the firm's unending focus on leading the way in construction law, and crafting tailored solutions for its clients. P&A is pleased to note that the firm's success has been repeatedly acknowledged by Lexology, with a recent exclusive recognition for having the greatest number of U.S. construction attorneys recognized in the publication - more than double the number of recognized attorneys compared to any other U.S. construction law practice.

Firm Chair Steven M. Charney commented, "It is an honor to once again receive this award from Lexology. This consecutive win reflects our team's continued devotion and shared commitment to the construction community and our clients."

ABOUT LEXOLOGY AWARDS: NORTH AMERICA

According to Lexology, the publication "is the number one global legal intelligence platform for mitigating risk, staying abreast of change, and finding expert counsel, built on insights, forward-looking analysis, and expert guidance from the world's leading law firms." Lexology reports that it conducts in-depth analyses of in-house and private practice lawyers and legal departments worldwide and that the research culminates in the annual Lexology Awards: North America, which recognizes the outstanding achievements of the world's leading practitioners across various practice areas and sectors.
