

Peckar & Abramson Named to BTI Client Service A-Team; Michael A. Branca, Christopher J. Olsen Recognized as All-Stars

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that the firm has been named to The BTI Consulting Group's Client Service A-Team list for 2026, a distinction reserved for law firms identified by corporate legal leaders as delivering the highest levels of client service.

BTI states their rankings are based on feedback from thought leaders, chief legal officers, and other top legal decision-makers at large organizations with $700 million or more in revenue. These individuals identify the law firms they believe deliver superior client service and exhibit behaviors and relationship attributes that clients value most in outside counsel. Only a select group of 258 firms across over 15 industry segments earned placement on this year's list.

In addition to the firm's recognition, Michael A. Branca, Co-Managing Partner in P&A's Washington, D.C. office, and Christopher J. Olsen, Partner in P&A's Washington, D.C. office, have been named BTI Client Service All-Stars. This honor is derived exclusively from 350 confidential, in depth interviews with top legal decision makers. Attorneys cannot nominate themselves or be submitted by their firms, making the All Stars designation one of the profession's most respected client driven accolades. Honorees are identified for consistently delivering exceptional counsel, responsiveness, and business focused solutions.

"At P&A, client service is the foundation of everything we do," said Firm Chair Steven M. Charney. "Being acknowledged by BTI as a leading firm for client service, and seeing our individual attorneys named as All-Stars, reflects our longstanding commitment to understanding our clients' businesses, anticipating their needs, and delivering strategic, practical solutions that help them achieve their goals."
