BIO

Sarafina Neubert, a Senior Associate in P&A's Denver office, represents clients in complex construction litigation and advises them throughout the lifecycle of major construction projects. Her practice focuses on helping general contractors navigate high stakes disputes, assess risk, and position matters for efficient and effective resolution.

Sarafina brings this trial tested perspective to her construction practice. She assists clients with pre dispute contract preparation and review, claim evaluation and development, litigation strategy, and trial. With her strategic approach to litigated matters and her ability to distill complex issues into clear, persuasive arguments, she helps clients identify practical paths forward and positions disputes effectively for negotiation or trial.

Before entering private practice, Sarafina served two years as a Deputy District Attorney. In that role, she tried dozens of cases to jury verdicts and developed substantial experience analyzing evidence, preparing witnesses, presenting arguments, and navigating the courtroom.
